

16 апреля, 20:00 МСК

How We Really Speak In English Speaking Countries

1. Russian English

How was your weekend?

— It was a usual weekend. I came to my mother, she is living in other city. This city is call Tula. I went to this city by car but it was bad traffic so I was late for one hour. We went together to some museum. It was so interesting building and a lot of fascinating things.

Also we had a dinner at one of restaurants located closely. One of my friend recommended to me this restaurant and suggested us to visit it. My mother she doesn't have money so I should to pay. I very liked spending a time with her. She is 82 years now and I have to care about her.

The next day I came back Moscow and I meet with my friend at a hotel. My friend she works like a manager in one of biggest Russian companies which call Gazprom company. Then I go to my home and did my English hometask.

1. Russian English

What's the weather like today?

— In Moscow today very sunny, we have a good weather and it is plus ten. We really feel spring.

What have you done today?

— Today morning I go to my work and had a lot of meeting, sent emails and talked with my clients. There are no any parking places at my office so I should to go by foot.

What are you going to do after the lesson?

— I want to do nothing! will have a dinner with my family spend time with my child and then we will see a TV serial with my husband.

2. Russian English & Real English

DONT's

Russian English

How was your weekend?

It was a usual weekend. I came to my mother, she is living in other city. This city is call Tula.

I went to this city by car but it was bad traffic so I was late for one hour. We went together to some museum. It was so interesting building and a lot of fascinating things.

Also we had a dinner at one of restaurants located closely.

One of my friend recommended to me this restaurant and suggested us to visit it.

Real English

DO's

It was a normal/typical weekend. I went to see my mother, she lives in another city, called Tula.

I drove there but the traffic was bad, so I was an hour late. We went to a museum together. It was such an interesting building/it was so interesting and there were lot of fascinating things there.

We also had dinner at one of the restaurants around there/nearby.

One of my friends recommended that restaurant/it to me and suggested we go.

2. Russian English & Real English

DONT's

Russian English

How was your weekend?

My mother she doesn't have money so I should to pay. I very liked spending a time with her. She is 82 years now and I have to care about her.

The next day I came back Moscow and I meet with my friend at a hotel. My friend she works like a manager in one of biggest Russian companies which call Gazprom company. Then I go to my home and did my English hometask.

Real English

DO's

My mother doesn't have a lot of money so I had to pay. I really liked spending time with her. She is 82 years old now and I have to look after her.

The next day, I came back to Moscow and I met my friend at a hotel. My friend is a manager at one of the biggest Russian companies which is called Gazprom. Then I went home and did my English homework.

2. Russian English & Real English

DONT's

Russian English

What's the weather like today?

— In Moscow today very sunny, we have a good weather and it is plus ten. We really feel spring.

Real English

DO's

— In Moscow it's very sunny today; the weather's good and it's ten degrees – it really feels like spring.

What have you done today?

— Today morning I go to my work and had a lot of meeting, sent emails and talked with my clients. There are no any parking places at my office so I should to go by foot.

— This morning I went to work and had a lot of meetings, sent emails and talked to my clients. There aren't any parking spaces at my office so need to walk to work.

2. Russian English & Real English

DONT'S

Russian English

DO'S

Real English

What are you going to do after the lesson?

— I want to do nothing! Will have a dinner with my family spend time with my child and then we will see a TV serial with my husband.

— I don't want to do anything! I will have dinner with my family, spend time with my son/daughter and then I will watch a TV show with my husband.

3. Real English

How was your weekend?

It was a normal/typical weekend. I went to see my mother, she lives in another city, called Tula.

I drove there, but the traffic was bad, so I was an hour late. We went to a museum together. It was such an interesting building/it was so interesting and there were lot of fascinating things there.

We also had dinner at one of the restaurants around there/nearby. One of my friends recommended that restaurant/it to me and suggested we go. My mother doesn't have a lot of money, so I had to pay. I really liked spending time with her. She is 82 years old now and I have to look after her.

The next day, I came back to Moscow and I met my friend at a hotel. My friend is a manager at one of the biggest Russian companies which is called Gazprom. Then I went home and did my English homework.

3. Real English

What's the weather like today?

— In Moscow it's very sunny today; the weather's good and it's ten degrees – it really feels like spring.

What have you done today?

— This morning I went to work and had a lot of meetings, sent emails and talked to my clients. There aren't any parking spaces at my office so need to walk to work.

What are you going to do after the lesson?

— I don't want to do anything! I will have dinner with my family, spend time with my son/daughter and then I will watch a TV show with my husband.

4. Questions

Dave Sowden

Преподаватель онлайн-школы «Инглекс»

ask@englex.ru

